MAILING ADDRESS DURING CAMP

Your child's name, c/o Quaker Ridge Camp, 30150 N. Hwy 67, Woodland Park, CO 80863

TELEPHONE

For emergencies, contact Sylvia Hale at (719) 360-5454 or Bill Hale at (719) 271-0486.

SUPERVISION AND PARTICIPATION

Campers are under the supervision of a cabin leader and the camp program director(s). Campers are expected to abide by the rules of Quaker Ridge Camp and the American Baptist Churches of the Rocky Mountains (ABCRM) at all times and are expected to participate in all camp activities unless specifically excused by a doctor or the parent in writing. The ultimate result of non-participation and/or consistent problem behavior may be the expulsion of the camper from camp and return to home.

INSURANCE

There is a place on the Health and Examination Form to indicate the name of your insurance carrier and the identification number(s) for camp personnel to use if it is necessary to take your child for emergency medical care. Please fill that information out completely.

MONEY NEEDED

In addition to the camp fee, money may also be brought for the Snack Shack and the purchase of souvenirs. Small denominations please – nothing over $10.00 bills.

WHAT TO BRING

- Camper's clothing needs to be modest. For girls, this includes a minimum inseam on shorts of at least three inches, midribs covered, and shoulder straps at least two finger widths. Boys pants will be expected to cover the top boxers/underwear (i.e. no droops).
- Bedding: Sleeping bag, pillow and/or blankets and sheets for assigned bed. Quaker Ridge does not supply any bedding! Elementary and Middle School campers have twin beds; Sr. High campers have queen size beds.
- Towel, soap, shampoo, toothpaste, toothbrush, hand sanitizer, bag for dirty clothes, plastic bag for wet clothes, etc.
- Water bottle, flashlight, extra batteries
- Sunscreen and sunglasses
- Bible, notebook, pens/pencils
- Appropriate swimsuit (1 piece only for girls) and towel (guys, please no Speedos, ugh!)
- Long pants and closed toe shoes for riding horses – no sandals, flip-flops, or slippers
- Sweatshirt or fleece hoodie and long pants for campfire time at night
- A cap, extra towel and extra pair of shoes are recommended
- At least 6 changes of clothing
- Rain poncho
- Money for Snack Shack – soft drinks, t-shirts, candy, ice-cream, popcorn, etc.
- Prescription and over-the-counter medications. All medications must be in their original packaging with instructions. All medications will be turned over to the camp nurse.
- Campers with long hair should bring hair ties that securely hold hair back to keep it out of ropes and carabineers. Loop earrings (and other facial rings) are discouraged because of the potential of serious injury during many camp activities.

CAMP RULES

- Love God with your whole heart, mind, and spirit and your neighbor as yourself. In other words . . .
- Have fun, learn as much as possible, spend time with God, worship with abandon, make new friends and connect with old friends, and enjoy the beauty of God's creation.
- Respect your fellow campers and staff (no temporary or permanent tattoos, no weapons, no profanity, no bullying or fighting)
- Respect the space of other campers: stay with your age group and don't enter cabins or rooms of the opposite gender. If it doesn't belong to you, leave it alone.
- Respect and care for camp property (no fireworks, matches, lighters, vandalism, littering, don't climb on roof or try to catch fish in the pond, etc.)
- Use common sense (don't bring your pets, play with bears or other wild animals, don't bring your 4-wheeler, if you bring your car leave it parked until the end of camp, use caution when driving on camp property)
- Camp staff will discuss how and when you can use your cell phone. Remember, camp is a time to get away, not to text every ten seconds.
