Life has ups and downs—and campers come to camp with all of it. Some show up excited and ready for fun. Others come carrying worries, questions, or feelings they’re trying to understand.

Psalm 23 reminds us of a steady truth: God is with us in every season. Not just on the mountaintops, but in the valleys too. God doesn’t wait for us to have everything figured out before walking with us—He meets us right where we are, in every season.

At Front Range Camp, we’ll explore what it means to trust in a God who is with us on our best days and our hardest ones. A God who brings comfort when things feel overwhelming, courage when the path feels uncertain, and hope that helps us take the next step.

No matter where you are in your faith, this is the promise to come back to again and again: You are not alone. God is with you. And God is greater than the highs and the lows.
